

Women Corporate Officers Hold Fewer Line Jobs in the Fortune 500 Overall Representation Stagnates

- The percentage of women officers in line jobs, gateway for promotion to top leadership, decreased 1.8 percentage points—or 6 percent.
- Slightly more than one-quarter of women officers held line positions, but one-half of men did.

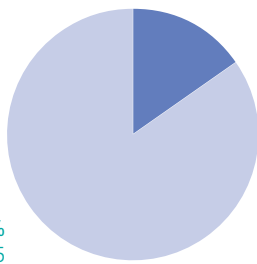

Share of Women and Men Corporate Officers in Line and Staff Positions

- Little change occurred in the percentages of corporate officer and top earner positions held by women.

2007 Corporate Officers

Women
Men

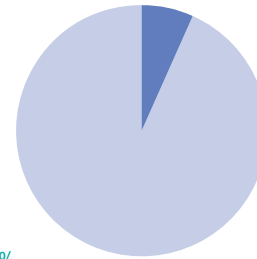

15.4%
N=1344/8745
In 2006, this number was 15.6 percent.

84.6%
N=7401/8745

2007 Top Earners

Women
Men

6.7%
N=142/2134
In 2006, this number was 6.7 percent.

93.4%
N=1992/2134

- In 2007, ten more companies had no women corporate officers—a 15.6 percent increase from 2006.

Number of Companies with Zero, One, Two, and Three or More Women Officers

2006
2007

